Allison,

Thank you very much for following up on this. I recall that when Rob left, he circulated a goodbye email that provided an email contact for him. I've long since deleted it, but I can track it down via mutual friends. Or, I would think that the file would (in theory) still be around. Maybe ask the branch chief for that group? I'm happy to do either one—what do you think?
Thanks, Dan

Lydia came through!!! (thanks Lydia!) Here you go

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

Ex. 5 - Deliberative It does require BMPs and the development of a SWPPP. It was supposed to send proof that it had undertaken the actions to Rob Sanchez. Rob left the agency about a year or two ago.
